CANADIANS TO RUN TERRA COTTA BRICK FACTORY IN FUTURE

Dominion Company Buys Plant At Auction, And Will Renew Work.

The Terra Cotta brick factory, which recently went into hands of receivers, has been purchased by a large Canadian manufacturing company, and will e operated. The property, containing about thirty-

The property, containing about thirty-one acres at Terra Cotta, D. C., was sold at auction on Monday for $30,110 to Frank B. Allen, representing the Cana-dian company, the headquarters of which are in Toronto. Mr. Allen also bid in the brick-making machinery for $12,500.

The factory was operated until its failure by the National Stone and Brick Company. This company purchased the property from the National Fire Proof-property from the National Fire Proof-ing Company, the local attorney of which is Charles F. Carusi. According to Mr. Carusi, one of the notes repre-senting the purchase price of the prop-erty has been overdue since last No-yember, and his clients were forced to foreclose on the mortgage to get their money, although every opportunity for although every opportunity for eorganization was given.

The National Fire Proofing Company operated the plant for some time as a fire-proofing brick factory. When the operated from the fire-proofing brick factory. When the fire-proofing clay was exhausted the plant was sold to the National Stone
